Ill.mo Sig. Prof. Giudice Aitala per la Corte Penale Internazionale,

Le vittime hanno bisogni della salute. Sono vulnerabile. You were a police official. An ex-advocate for me was also a police official.² Alas not all police officers in inter alia Ireland and Portugal are keen on investigations and prevention of repetitions of on-going crimes.

² Senhor Doutor João Barreiros, Processo: 437/24.0BECBR, Tribunal Administrativo e Fiscal de Coimbra, Portugal

You worked on: "30 November 2007, Berlin. German Presidency of G8, Conference on the Rule of Law. "Rule of Law Requirements on Legislation and the Administration. Monitoring of the Executive by the Courts": Chair of Working Group III and rapporteur to the Plenary".

Crimes against humanity (extermination; enslavement; 2 deportations; false imprisonments; torture; persecution; apartheid; and "Other inhumane acts of a similar character intentionally causing great suffering, or serious injury to body or to mental or physical health") and genocide (Rome-Statute Article 6(b) and 6(c)) and human trafficking happened against me because of administrative racism by Portugal. Portugal persists to perpetrate most of these crimes against me and all of these types of crimes against other victims as widespread systematic attacks via immunities de facto and via mobbing. 3 murders are perpetrated to obscure torture against me. Our Government wrote that would-be arrest warrants against such criminals are "appropriate to the Department of Foreign Affairs". (A department here is a ministry.) Cf. HTTPS://Gloucester.Insomnia247.NL/Fine_Gael/Fine_Gael.HTM quoting our Government about these international would-be arrest warrants. You met "the Committee on Foreign Affairs and Trade" on 09/10/2026 or 10/06/2026. Cf. HTTPS://WWW.ICC-CPI.int/news/ICC-first-vice-president-concludes-official-visit-Ireland about you meeting "Thomas Byrne" who is in this "Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade". Is there any progress with these would-be arrest warrants? Our Government wrote 3 years ago that they are "appropriate". I continue to wait for "judges to administer justice in situations" which "deeply" affect my life and "lives" and deaths of friends and neighbours, like ASP President H.E. Mr O-Gon Kwon said when welcoming you.

You worked on: "7-9 May 2007. Higher Council of the Judiciary: International Seminar on Mobbing (EU AGIS programme). "Prospects for penal cooperation on mobbing in the EU, between harmonisation and mutual recognition".

"Today, 9 March 2018, six new judges of the International Criminal Court (ICC) were sworn in at a ceremony held at the seat of the Court in The Hague (Netherlands). Judges Luz del Carmen Ibañez Carranza (Peru), Solomy Balungi Bossa (Uganda), Tomoko Akane (Japan), Reine Alapini-Gansou (Benin), Kimberly Prost (Canada) and Rosario Salvatore Aitala (Italy) were elected for nine-year terms during the sixteenth session of the Assembly of States Parties (ASP) to the Rome Statute in December 2017.

ASP President H.E. Mr O-Gon Kwon welcomed the new judges to the Court: "Delivering international justice is no easy task; the victims of the most serious international crimes look to these judges to administer justice in situations that have deeply affected their lives and their communities. The accused deserve to have trials conducted in a fair, effective and impartial manner. The credibility and legitimacy of the Court will, to a great extent, be reflected in your ability to be fair and impartial judges and your judgements."

ICC President Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi stated: "Our six new colleagues join the Court at a very challenging time. In the last years, judges have played a leading role in efforts to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of proceedings and the quality of justice that is delivered. I am confident that such efforts will continue and be enriched by the new ideas and experience of our new colleagues that join the Court today.”” says the ICC.³

“There is, however, extensive reference to the Bangalore Principles in the Department of Justice’s 2017 Regulatory Impact Analysis (‘RIA’) for the Judicial Council Bill 2017.⁶ The RIA contains an informative account of the domestic context for the enactment of the 2019 Act, as well as the international context, including not only the Bangalore Principles but also the very poor rating that Ireland received from the Council of Europe’s Group of States against Corruption, GRECO (the acronym for Groupe d’Etats contre la Corruption).”

I myself went to a police station.

"Haigh. Eh. Bíonn caingne uaim." said I myself to this police station on 13/09/2025. I.e. I said Irish for Hello. Eh. I need to make complaints.

"Sorry?" said a policeman on 13/09/2025.

"I need need to complain please." said I myself.

"OK. What's what's it in relation to complain about?" said a policeman.

"Eh well I eh need for example for example ah I paid a law firm eh to make representations and eh" said I myself.

"Is this is this about something - sorry to interrupt you. Is this about something over in Spain or [. . .]" said a policeman.

"Portugal." said I myself.

"Portugal. OK. And what can the Garda Síochána do for you?" said a policeman. Cf. Guardia & Garda.

"So, eh, please eh register a complaint and eh inform eh a Portuguese police force em that I'm making a complaint here." said I myself.

"But but you keep coming into the guards. We keep telling you we're not able to do that." said a policeman.

"Your website clearly states that you must accept complaints about crimes which happened abroad [. . .]" said I myself.

"What is the crime?" said a policeman.

"So. Eh. Lots of crimes have happened. Eh. Two of my friends have been murdered in Portugal and another neighbour. I have paid a law firm to eh make representations eh over [. . .] but after it received more than five hundred Euro of payments from me it eh refused to" said I myself.

"But are the Portuguese police not investigating murder?" said a policeman.

"I do not detect them investigating murders." said I myself.

"OK. Well. That that" said a policeman.

"And for example I have received eh an email from eh two guards in Portugal in Portuguese even though they know I don't understand Portuguese and it seems according to translation websites to say that they deny that murders are a crime." said I myself.

"No." said a policeman.

"No. Murder is a crime alright." said Policeman Anthony Malone (i.e. a different policeman than the policeman whom I quoted before this sentence).

"Of course." said I myself.

Thomas Byrne and Helen McEntee work for the same ministry. Helen McEntee is this “Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade”. I wrote to the CPT and Foundation Front-Lex:

“Dear Sirs and Mesdames,

A news magazine reports:
"MARTIN'S CORE OF
IRISH NEUTRALITY

[. . .] the mantra from Government and foreign minister
Helen McEntee is that Ireland was forced to abandon its role in Operation Irini in the Mediterranean last month because of the triple lock.
[. . .]

But according to distinguished former commandant Edward Horgan, who once trained Defence Forces personnel at the Command and Staff School but who has been a peace campaigner for many years, this is the opposite of the truth.
[. . .]

Horgan also says that as part of Fortress Europe, which was designed to keep migrants from entering Europe, Pontus and Sophia were cancelled and replaced by Operation Irini, supposedly to enforce the UN arms embargo on Libya. In reality this operated to push back fleeing migrants into Libya, where many were tortured and exploited.

Horgan pointed out that Sally Hayden's book, On my Fourth Time We Drowned, exposes some of this. [. . .]"

Front-Lex ha scritto:

“Procurare i funzionari dell'UE per crimini contro l'umanità nel Mediterraneo centrale.

Corte penale internazionale, 2019

Il 3 giugno 2019, gli avvocati internazionali Omer Shatz e Juan Branco hanno presentato una comunicazione alla Corte penale internazionale (CPI) contenente prove che "coinvolgono funzionari e agenti dell'Unione europea e degli Stati membri in crimini contro l'umanità, commessi nell'ambito di una politica premeditata volta a frenare i flussi migratori dall'Africa attraverso la rotta del Mediterraneo centrale, a partire dal 2014", e chiedono alla CPI di avviare un'indagine sulla questione.

La denuncia si concentra su tre aspetti principali delle politiche migratorie dell'UE tra il 2015 e il 2019: il passaggio dall'operazione di soccorso italiana Mare Nostrum all'operazione congiunta Frontex Triton; l'allontanamento delle ONG che conducono missioni di ricerca e salvataggio (SAR); e la cooperazione dell'UE con la Guardia costiera libica; e sostiene che tali politiche hanno portato a:

- La morte per annegamento di migliaia di migranti (oltre 20.000 morti dal 2015)
- Il respingimento di decine di migliaia di migranti che tentavano di fuggire dalla Libia
- Complicità nei successivi crimini di deportazione, omicidio, incarcerazione, riduzione in schiavitù, tortura, stupro, persecuzione e altri atti disumani, avvenuti nei campi di detenzione e nelle case di tortura libici (oltre 100.000 dal 2016).

Nel 2020, il Procuratore capo della Corte penale internazionale (CPI) ha confermato al Parlamento europeo che il caso era in fase di elaborazione da parte dell'Ufficio del Procuratore (OTP). Poco dopo, il Procuratore ha confermato che il caso era stato dichiarato ammissibile. Nel 2022, le Nazioni Unite hanno confermato che gli Stati membri dell'UE sono complici di crimini contro l'umanità commessi contro i "migranti" in Libia.

front -LEX collabora con i nostri partner al fine di fornire prove incriminanti all'OTP contro funzionari degli Stati e delle agenzie dell'UE implicati in innumerevoli crimini contro l'umanità quali omicidio, deportazione, riduzione in schiavitù, sparizioni forzate, incarcerazione, tortura, stupro e altri atti disumani.”¹⁰ “Migrants and refugees who are intercepted while crossing the Mediterranean and forcibly returned to Libyan detention centers are subjected to grave human rights abuses. Despite knowledge of these crimes, a number of EU actors have increased their cooperation with Libya. To push for an end to this impunity, we filed a communication to the International Criminal Court (ICC) in November 2022 against 24 individuals, including 16 high-level decision makers from EU member states, the EU Commission, the EU border management agency FRONTEX, the European External Action Service EESA, and the EU military mission EUNAVOR MED.

CASE

Since 2016, the EU has increased its capacity-building and operational support for the so-called Libyan Coast Guard, including the provision of funding, patrol boats, equipment and training. Officials of the EU and its Member States also participate directly in specific interceptions, for example, by providing information on the location of boats in distress through the use of FRONTEX drones. This degree of support and collaboration demonstrates the decisive role that high-ranking officials within EU member states and EU agencies play in the deprivation of liberty of migrants and refugees fleeing Libya.

This communication contributes new factual evidence obtained from Sea-Watch and other sea rescue and civil society organizations, along with investigative journalists, concerning 12 exemplary incidents of interceptions of migrants and refugees in the Central Mediterranean between 2018 and 2021. The incidents demonstrate a particularly clear and detailed form of cooperation between EU member states and agencies (specifically EUNAVFOR MED and Frontex) and Libyan actors at both the policy and operational levels, with the aim of intercepting migrants and refugees at sea in order to return them to Libya and detain them there. The communication highlights the individual responsibility of 16 high-ranking alleged perpetrators, including well-known political leaders. The ICC must finally break the cycle of impunity and open cases into grave crimes committed against migrants and refugees – also in the context of interceptions at sea.”

I have causes of actions for our judicial council. I already brought 1 such cause of action.¹² I brought a form for another cause action for our judicial council to the Internet on 21/06/2026¹³ and I shall bring it to a registered-mail office on the same day when I will post this missive to you (i.e. 22/06/2026). If you may not become involved (possibly e.g. if you are possibly too busy or possibly e.g. if becoming involved would force you to recuse yourself if there would ever be a would-be hearing at the International Criminal Court about e.g. torturing me), then please inform me of who can assist me. Our judicial council boasts via its latest annual report (for 2024! - sic: not 2025 not 2026), that of the 273+216 latest reported complaints to its Judicial-Conduct Committee, only one single complaint is ever declared to be admissible! No complaint to this JCC before these 273+216 complaints is ever declared to be admissible. Cf. the absurdly high rejection rate (over 90%) by the European sham Court of Human Rights.

“Four things belong to a judge: to hear courteously; to answer wisely; to consider soberly; and to decide impartially.” says an article.¹⁴

“Courtesy and patience must be [. . .] virtues [. . .] they are essential if our courts are to enjoy public confidence.”¹⁵

Can you or a person whom you know help me to demand respect for Bangalore Principles of Judicial Conduct?

Civil lawyers who represent me (against an assailant whom a judge refuses to sign a criminal summons against) say that I have “stateable” cases, but they do not work on our Judicial-Council Act 2019, so they do not represent me against a judge. Anti-negligence lawyers refuse to prosecute judges. Cf.

I remind Fiosrú that I want to prosecute this assailant and that I want a copy of CCTV footage of these assaults, but Fiosrú does not answer. Why?

“During his visit, the Vice-President exchanged views on matters of mutual interest with the Attorney General of Ireland, Mr Rossa Fanning, and the Minister of State for European Affairs, Mr Thomas Byrne.” says

An assailant is a racist policeman who refuses to take complaints by me due to inter alia torture and human trafficking, so the aforementioned civil lawyers advised me that we are also suing this Attorney General. This press release is dated “Press Release: 11 June 2026”. What exactly is the logic of this press release becoming released after you ended this visit? Why did I become aware of this visit only by chance by seeing a webpage about this press release after its release? Did you discuss any of my murdered friends or tortured friends or me during this visit?

I cite this press release via news:ie.general via an article since 12/06/2026.

The so-called “Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission” refuses to act against these murders; this persecution; this discrimination; and this torture. Cf. IHREC Lawyer Michael O’Neill dared to write to me on 15/11/2024 that these crimes do not raise a question of principle! How? I wrote to Liam Herrick.¹⁶ He never answers. Why? Are IHREC and Liam Herrick hypocrites and subvention fraudsters? Cf. that he does not attempt to use an anti-libel law against me and that I emailed him and Yemi Adenuga:

“Dear Ms. Yemi Adenuga,

[. . .]

As usual, this Irish Human-Rights-and-Equality Commission does not bother to do its legal duties.”¹⁷

I take this opportunity to remark that I reported persecution and extermination (which I witnessed which I am not a victim of) to IHREC during 2024:

“A dhaoine uaisle, a chairde,

Léigh mé fógra ciníochais ag SuperValu um an Uaimh ar an 13/10/2024 le gairid roimh an 4:40:50i.n. a chlog.

I continue to wait for the 1st summons as a witness thereof! The putative Republic of Ireland is a slow racist hypocrite!
